a Hello from us

Hello, we're Shirley and Wendy.

We're photographers and filmmakers drawn to human connection, thoughtful details, and the atmosphere that makes each story feel entirely its own. Based in Leeds, we work across the UK and beyond, creating photographs and films for all kinds of people, occasions, and ideas.

Over nearly a decade, our work has taken us from weddings to pre-wedding and engagement sessions, editorial couple shoots, family portraits, individual portraits, and events. Whatever brings you in front of our cameras, our approach begins with you: your personality, your connections, and what you hope to remember or express.

We also understand the traditions and expectations that often shape East Asian pre-wedding photography, from considered styling and location choices to a more guided approach to posing. Whether you're imagining something relaxed and spontaneous or carefully styled and cinematic, we're happy to explore the possibilities together.

Little Forest Studio, which we founded in 2018, has grown with us. Workshops, new influences, and time spent exploring our craft continue to encourage us to experiment freely with light, composition, movement, and playful ideas.

You'll find quiet, poetic moments alongside images full of energy and humour. We leave space for things to unfold naturally, offering guidance when it helps and bringing a creative eye to each person, place, and occasion.

If you see something of yourselves in our work, we'd love to hear what you have in mind - whether it fits one of the categories in this brochure or is something entirely different.

As a two-woman team, we bring our own perspectives and a thoughtful, open-minded approach to every shoot. We welcome people of all cultures, backgrounds, faiths, and identities, taking time to understand what matters to you and what you hope to capture. Before each session, we'll talk through your ideas and create a tailored shoot plan around your vision, preferences, and practical needs. Above all, we want you to feel at ease, understood, and free to be yourselves, so the photographs and films we create reflect your personality, your connections, and the stories you want to tell.

Our sessions can be about more than photographs. A short film offers another way to capture a connection, express your personality, or document an occasion - whether that's a music-inspired couple film, a cinematic portrait, or the energy and atmosphere of an event. We've also created films alongside maternity and family photography: little home movies that preserve familiar voices, shared laughter, and everyday moments together.

Signature Editing or Bespoke Retouching?

Signature Editing is our standard approach to editing your collection. We select photographs from each part of your shoot, using our judgement as photographers to bring together a varied collection that tells the story of your session.

Each selected image is colour graded in our signature style and includes light skin retouching where needed. We generally leave face and body shapes as they are, although we may make subtle adjustments where an angle, pose, or clothing creates an unflattering line or compression. The overall approach is natural - the photographs you see on our website and social media are representative of our Signature Editing.

Bespoke Retouching offers more detailed adjustments to photographs you select, tailored to your preferences. This option is particularly suited to clients who prefer the more polished finish often associated with East Asian pre-wedding photography. It can include refining hairlines, more detailed skin work, and adjustments to face and body contours. We'll discuss your preferences beforehand to understand the level of retouching you feel comfortable with.

Both options share the same signature colour grading; the difference is the level of detailed retouching.

If your collection includes Bespoke Retouching and you don't feel you need it, please speak with us. We can discuss replacing that part of your collection with additional Signature Edited photographs.

OUR APPROACH

RELAXED, WITH GUIDANCE WHEN YOU NEED IT

We're laid-back photographers and filmmakers, and we take our cues from you. If you love being in front of the camera and have your own ideas about how you'd like to move or pose, we're happy to step back and give you space to express yourselves.

If you feel a little unsure, we'll offer gentle, easy-to-follow guidance through simple movements and everyday gestures. As you settle in and we get a feel for your personalities, we might introduce something more playful or explore ideas that feel like you.

You don't need to know how to pose. Whether you enjoy doing your own thing or prefer us to guide you, we're comfortable with either.

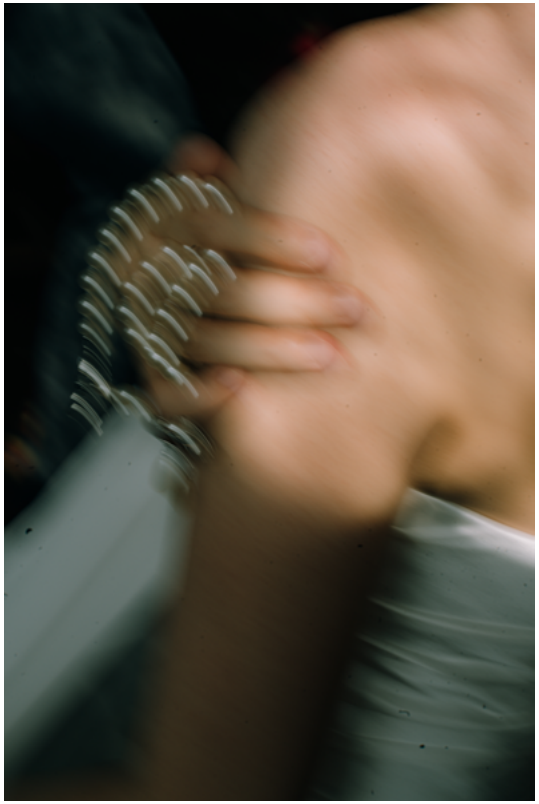
WHY WE WORK AS A DUO

We're often asked whether we offer coverage with just one photographer or filmmaker. The investment reflects the overall work involved in documenting your session, from planning and shooting to editing, rather than a separate fee for each of us. We share that workload, and working as a duo is integral to how we deliver every shoot.

After nearly a decade working side by side, we instinctively know how to complement each other. We use different lenses and focal lengths to bring two perspectives to the same moment, while also acting as each other's assistant whenever needed.

That might mean helping with lighting or supporting each other throughout the shoot when capturing both photographs and film. Working this way gives us the flexibility to put our attention where it's needed, helping everything flow smoothly and bringing out the best in what we create together.

HOW TO SECURE YOUR DATE



A signed agreement and a non-refundable booking fee are required to secure your date. We don't require full payment before your session; the remaining balance is due afterwards. Instalment plans are also available - if this would be helpful, please speak with us so we can discuss a suitable arrangement.

Travel is included for locations within a three-hour one-way drive or train journey from Leeds. For locations beyond this area, additional travel charges will be quoted separately and agreed with you before booking.

Accommodation is not included in our collections, so we normally travel from Leeds on the day of your session. If your location is particularly remote, or your shoot requires a very early or strictly fixed start time, we may need to arrive the evening before. Any additional charge for an overnight hotel stay will be discussed and agreed with you before booking and included in your agreement.

AFTER YOUR SESSION

TURNAROUND TIME

We know you'll be excited to see your photographs and films, so we'll share a sneak peek within two weeks of your session.

Most people receive their full photo gallery within three to four weeks, and their films within two months.

Our agreement allows up to two months for photographs and three months for films. These longer timeframes give us a little breathing room during the summer and other particularly busy periods, so we can give every collection the care and attention it deserves.

DESTINATION SESSIONS

Whether you're dreaming of a pre-wedding shoot abroad, family photographs on holiday, or portraits somewhere special, we'd love to hear your ideas. Get in touch for our destination brochure and we can explore the possibilities together.

WEDDINGS

Planning your wedding too? We'd love to be part of the celebrations. We offer wedding photography and filmmaking across the UK and beyond, with a separate brochure to help you explore the options.

Book your wedding coverage and pre-wedding session with us, and enjoy a discount on your pre-wedding session. Get in touch for our wedding brochure and details of the offer.
